

An entity is a thing with a distinct existence in the domain.
The existence of each of these entities is independent of any other concept in the domain.

Graql rules look for a given pattern in the dataset and when found, create the given queryable relation.

Source for figures:
<https://www.oc.nps.edu/~bird/oc2930/acoustics/>